Get Reel About a Film Career

Learn to make movies with pros who come straight from the film production industry.

By next year, global film industry revenue will top $106 billion. To really make it in the industry, you need training from experienced pros who can teach you about the film business, while you're fully immersed in the filmmaking process through an intensive hands-on and production-focused curriculum designed to mimic the most current film industry skills, techniques and practices.

VFS VANCOUVER FILM SCHOOL

One-Year Program

Time is one of today's most precious commodities. So, you don't want to spend 2 – 4 years studying for your career, when VFS can better train and prepare you in just 12 months. Our production-focused curriculum delivers a truly hands-on education that gives you the crucial experience needed to break into the industry.

Industry Integration

VFS doesn't just teach you about the industry, it IS the industry. With veteran instructors and mentors recruited straight from the top studios in the professional world, we are able to constantly update our curriculum to keep up with an ever-evolving industry. So, students gain real-world experience even before their first day on the job.

Alumni Network + Success

Every year, VFS alumni help generate billions in global box office and sales of film, television & gaming franchises. In fact, our grads are some of the most sought-after professionals in the entertainment and creative media arts industries. And, after 30 years of training the globe's top creatives, VFS connects you to this 25,000-strong alumni network of film, TV, video game and design talents.

Program Highlights

Term 01

Explore the possibilities of storytelling, giving you both the narrative craft and visual techniques necessary to bring a story to life on the screen.

Term 02

Expand your range of filmmaking techniques while you learn to work on larger sets and co-create with outside writers.

Term 03

Combine cutting edge techniques, like green screen and visual effects, with the ingenuity to solve production challenges.

Term 04

Specialize in two of five key creative streams to build yourself into a multitalented professional.

Term 05

Dedicate your time and energy to final projects, high-quality short films that will form the basis of your professional reel.

Term 06

Complete the filming of all final projects, and focus on employment preparation and advanced electives.

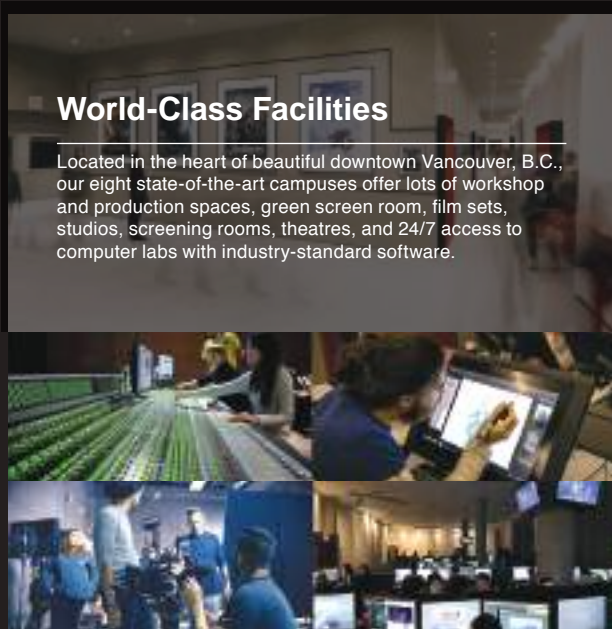

Specializations

Students explore the five key disciplines of filmmaking during their year VFS. As the year progresses, students choose to specialize in two of the following disciplines, giving their portfolio the kind of focus necessary to launch a career as a professional filmmaker.

Directing | Cinematography | Producing | Production Design | Post-Production

World-Class Facilities

Located in the heart of beautiful downtown Vancouver, B.C., our eight state-of-the-art campuses offer lots of workshop and production spaces, green screen room, film sets, studios, screening rooms, theatres, and 24/7 access to computer labs with industry-standard software.

“Filmmaking is a business as well as an art. VFS prepares students for the business obstacles that independent filmmakers face. The art comes from those special instructors and the creative synergy among students.”
